

DRAMA EXERCISES

Choice and Consequences

Prepare a short drama based on the following storyline:

Macca (or Mia) has been asked by someone they know to look after a package for a few days. In fact, it was more of an order than a request. Macca (or Mia) doesn't know what's in the package but thinks they might be breaking the law by accepting it. Macca (or Mia) isn't happy and asks friends for advice. At least one friend suggests that Macca (or Mia) lets a responsible adult know what is going on.

Two years later, Macca or Mia is in a Young Offender's Institution. The police searched their house and found the package. Inside was a gun. Macca (or Mia) has asked the friend to come and visit and help him/her prepare for the day when he / she will be released. They talk about ways that a criminal record is going to affect Macca's (or Mia's) future life.
