

DRAMA EXERCISES

Peer Pressure

Prepare a short drama based on the following storyline:

Jade (or Josh) spends most evenings hanging out with a group of young people in the park. They don't do much and keep themselves to themselves, although they know passers-by are sometimes wary of them.

A couple of older teenagers have recently been introduced to the group – friends of friends. They shout insults at passers-by and have been encouraging the others to join in. They have a particular dislike (but no-one knows why) for one person who walks through the park each evening. They want Jade (or Josh) to square up to this person, tell them to keep away from the park and threaten them. Jade (or Josh) is not happy about this...
